

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream: Daniel 2

In this publication Michael Penny considers the many and differing views there are of Nebuchadnezzar's Dream. These include the interpretations given by varying schools of thought including: a-millennialists post-millennialists pre-millennialists historicists futurists modernists liberals dispensationalists The introduction deals with rules for interpreting the passage and, by considering the passage prospectively (.i.e. looking forwards from it, as Nebuchadnezzar and Daniel would have done), the author draws up a framework against which the varying views can be tested. The conclusion sets out a new and possible interpretation which the reader is ask to consider and test.
