

DESCRIBING PEOPLE in British Sign Language (BSL) (LETS SIGN BSL)

A warts and all collection of 92 illustrated signs with written descriptions for families and learners including BSL Level 1 students. Includes alternative versions of some signs where appropriate. There are a variety of ways of referring to or identifying individuals in the British Sign Language (BSL) using community that illustrate alternative perspectives and sensibilities that define its culture. In referring to and identifying people in BSL, when names are used they can be fingerspelled in full and may be abbreviated to part of the name or just the initials. Names signs are more commonly used based on an individuals physical characteristics in ways that may appear blunt to hearing people, but are helpful to BSL users because of their direct visuality. There are many situations that call upon our ability to describe and identify people and this publication contains an illustrated collection of examples in a mobile format for easy reference for revision of signs learned in class or seen used in the community. This handy mobile format works well on smart phone and tablet using the free kindle reader apps. The 92 examples cover distinguishing facial characteristics, hair styles and colour, body types, age groups and much more. Also included are Left and Right-Handed Fingerspelling Alphabets and BSL Handshape Key.
