Read on... St. Louis de Montfort says: As the essential of this devotion consists in the interior which it ought to form, it will not be equally comprehended by everybody. Some will stop at what is exterior in it, and will go no further, and these will be the greatest number. Some, in small number, will enter into its inward spirit; but they will only mount but one step. Who will get as far as the third? Lastly, who will so advance as to make this devotion his habitual state? Part of the reason for that is that St. Louis-Marie didnt give in-depth explanations. A Montfort Father wrote that the Saint shows his intention of only saying things briefly, and he avoids lingering over proofs. But the main problem is Satan, the enemy of mankind. St. Louis-Marie says specifically: There are at this time, more than ever, false devotions to our Blessed Lady which it is easy to mistake for true ones. The devil, like a counterfeiter and a subtle and experienced deceiver, has already deceived and destroyed so many souls by a false devotion to the Blessed Virgin, that he makes a daily use of his diabolical experience to plunge many others by this same way into everlasting perdition. The other thing is that St. Louis-Marie calls this devotion a mystery of grace unknown to even the wisest and most spiritual among Christians; and, a secret unknown to almost all Christians, even the most devout. But To Jesus through Mary is your step-by-step, easy-to-follow roadmap for living your consecration to Jesus through Mary. With this trusted guide, you will avoid the pitfalls in living your consecration, because it gives you the interior spirit of this devotion. Imagine this day with me It would be no wonder if, at the hour of death, it should be found that a person faithful to this practice shall, by the means of it, have delivered many souls from Purgatory, and converted many sinners, though he shall have done nothing more than the ordinary actions of his state of life. What joy at his judgment! What glory in his eternity! (True Devotion to Mary, #172). Think of what it means for you to convert sinners or deliver souls from Purgatory. St. Louis-Marie says: We must understand also what a good it is to convert a sinner, or to deliver a soul from Purgatory. It is an INFINITE GOOD, which is greater than to create heaven and earth, because we give to a soul the possession of God. If by this practice we deliver but one soul in our life from Purgatory, or convert but one sinner, would not that be enough to induce a truly charitable man to embrace it? And Mary herself will help you. In St. Alphonsus Liguoris The Glories of Mary, you read: Mary is so desirous to do us good, that she can bear no delay; and not being a miserly keeper of her favors, but the Mother of mercy, she cannot restrain herself from dispensing, as soon as possible among her servants, the treasures of her liberality.
